

LETTER OF INTENT TO SCHOOL/COLLEGE (TYPE ONE)

To,

Name of the person,

Address

Hello XYZ,

Think about it: having a million dollars in the bank demonstrates success only if one of your goals is to hoard money. If your goal is to conduct benevolent activities, so keeping the money for yourself will suddenly be inconsistent as to how you would define success. Furthermore, you need to recognize how to set your goals. You always can't say, "I want it" and expect it to happen.

That is where, Dheya, a premier Career Guidance and Planning organisation working with a self-developed Psychometric tool and encompassing a community of experienced mentors, comes into picture. Dheya means "The Goal" in Sanskrit. Established in 2005, we are a small, flexible career development company that designs and runs impactful programs for corporates, students, professionals and unemployed rural youth.

Today any individual student along with parents invests 15-18 years of life in getting educated for a fulfilling work life of 40 years+ without knowing what they want to "be" in life. Eventually they end up being unplanned, ill-prepared, oblivious and incapable of entry into occupations resulting in miserable low productive careers.

Recognizing strength and rebuilding confidence is our key motto.

On behalf of DHEYA, here's the best of what we offer:
